Policies/Informed Consent

Please read this agreement and sign at the end indicating that you understand and agree to the following. I would like to introduce these policies and procedures to you so that there are no misunderstandings in the future. Please ask any questions if you would like clarification or additional information.

1. I counsel primarily from the Adlerian perspective using supportive techniques. Its mission is to encourage the development of psychologically healthy and cooperative individuals, children, couples, and families in order to effectively pursue the ideals of social equality and democratic living. An optimistic and inspiring approach to psychotherapy, it balances the equally important needs for optimal development of the individual as well as social responsibility.
2. I also conduct Adlerian Play therapy with younger children. Children often have a difficulty expressing themselves verbally, and using therapeutic play can enhance their ability to process their emotions. When working with children I often involve the parents or the entire family during the therapy process, because greater involvement usually leads to quicker and better improvement in the child's behavior. Parental involvement also helps to achieve long lasting results.
3. Fees: My fee for an individual 45-50 minute session is $120. Payment is due at the time services are provided. Group therapy, when available, is $40 per 45-50 minute group session.
4. There are fees associated with work provided outside of your therapy session. Telephone consultations that exceed 10 minutes are billed at a rate of $2 per minute. Reports and letters generated at your request, and exceeding 10 minutes of work are $60 per 30 minutes.
5. Forensic Rates: $250 per hour (or portion of hour) for legal testimony or deposition; $150 per hour (prorated) for local transportation, waiting, and preparation for legal testimony or deposition. Consultation with attorneys or litigants (in person or via phone), report writing, review of records, and any other service associated with a legal dispute will be billed at a rate of $150 per hour (prorated). If I am subpoenaed or otherwise committed to appear in a legal case involving you, and the appearance is cancelled with less than 48 hours notice, you will be billed $1000 to offset the cost of a lost day of my work. These rates are enforced whether you, or another litigant in a case involving you have compelled me to become involved. Failure to keep your account current may result in legal action or collection agency intervention.
6. Each session will be about 45-50 minutes in length. If you arrive late to your session, that time will be taken out of our meeting. I will consider you a "no show" if you have not arrived or called 15 minutes past our appointment time.

7. If you need to cancel or to reschedule an appointment, I require 24 hours advance notice. Cancellations made with less than the required 24 hours will be charged the full session fee for the missed appointment.
8. Payment is due at the time of the visit unless you and I have made other arrangements. I accept cash, personal checks and debit cards. Returned checks are subject to an additional service charge of twenty dollars. As a courtesy, I will provide you with a statement which is necessary to file an insurance claim. It is your responsibility to file and discuss any issues concerning your reimbursement with your insurance company.
9. You have the right to terminate our relationship at any time, for any reason.
10. Please give me seven (7) days' notice if you decide not to work with me anymore.
11. I also reserve the right to terminate our relationship, and will provide referrals to other therapists or health practitioners in that event.
12. Our discussions will remain confidential. The only exceptions to this rule are if you threaten to harm yourself or someone else, or in a response to court mandates. In these cases, I am required by law to report our conversation to the proper authorities.
13. I will strive to support you and/or family in the therapeutic journey as we work toward reaching set goals. Many clients do reach their goals, but I cannot guarantee this outcome.

Acknowledgement and Consent

By signing these polices, I
(1) Acknowledge that I have been given a chance to review and ask questions about the Policies and Practices to Protect the Privacy of Your Health Information,
(2) Understand that the counselors associated with Atascocita Counseling Associates are all sole practitioners and any legal action taken against one of the psychotherapists may not include the others.
(3) Understand and agree to the stated practice polices as listed above and
(4) Give full consent for myself or my minor child,
_____, to participate in psychotherapy/ counseling.
I certify that I have the legal right to seek and authorize treatment for my minor child or myself.

PRIVACY POLICY

This notice describes how health information about you, as a patient of this practice, may be used and disclosed, and how you can access your health information. This is required by the Privacy Regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

My Commitment to your privacy: I am required by law to maintain the confidentiality of your health information and must provide you with the following information:

The following circumstances may require me to disclose your health information:

- To public health authorities and health oversight agencies authorized by law to collect information.
- In response to a court administrative order in lawsuits or similar proceedings.
- If required to do so by a law enforcement official.
- When necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or health and safety of another individual or the public. I will disclose to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.
- If you are a member of the U>S. or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate authorities.
- To federal officials for intelligence and national security authorities authorized by law.
- To correctional institutions or law enforcement officials if you are an inmate or under custody of a law enforcement official.
- For Workers Compensation or similar programs.
- Your rights regarding your health information:
- You can request communication about your health and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For instance, you may ask that I contact you at home, rather than work. I will accommodate reasonable requests.
- You can request restriction in my disclosure of your health insurance for treatment, payment, or operation. You can request that I restrict disclosure of health information to certain individuals. I am not required to agree to your request; however, if I do agree, I am bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, or when the information is necessary for treatment.
- You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the health information that may be used to make decisions about you, including medical records and billing records, but excluding psychotherapy notes.

- You may ask me to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, as long as the information is kept by or for my practice. To request an amendment, request must be in writing and provide a reason that supports your request for amendment.
- You are entitled to receive a copy of this notice of privacy at anytime.
- If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with my practice or with the Secretary of the Department of Human Services.
- All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.
- I will obtain your written authorization for usage and disclosure of health information that are not identified by this notice, or permitted by law.

I hereby acknowledge that I have been presented with a Notice of Privacy Practice.
